

Under appropriate circumstances, that being the performing of minor procedures, a physician may delegate certain procedures and services to appropriately trained non-physician office personnel. The physician, when delegating these minor procedures, must comply with the following protocol:

1. The physician must personally diagnose the condition of the patient and prescribe the treatment and procedure to be performed.
2. The physician may delegate the performance of certain tasks in the treatment only to trained non-physician personnel skilled in that procedure.
3. The physician must make himself available to respond to the patient should there be any complications from the minor procedure.
4. The physician should ensure and document patient records that adequately describe the condition of the patient and the procedure performed, and who performed said procedure.

A physician who does not comply with the above-stated protocol when performing minor procedures will be considered as exhibiting gross negligence, subjecting the physician to a disciplinary hearing before the Board, pursuant to the Medical Practices Act and the Rules and Regulations of the Board.

Ark. Code Ann. 17-95-409(a)(2)(g) states that the Board may revoke an existing license, or suspend the same, if a physician has committed unprofessional conduct, further defined as committing gross negligence or ignorant malpractice. The Board finds that a physician has, in fact, committed gross negligence if he performs laser surgery on patients without benefit of: a) clinical experience in the use of lasers; b) training of clinical management of patients; c) continuing medical education courses in the use of lasers; d) providing appropriate preoperative, operative, and post operative management.
