Scope of Rules

These rules and regulations will set forth the procedures for establishing filing fees for nonpartisan judicial offices pursuant to Arkansas Code Annotated § 7-10-103. These rules are in addition to and not a substitute for the laws of the State of Arkansas.

§ 100 Definitions

- (a) Annual Salary - for the purpose of these rules, the salary established by the General Assembly during Regular sessions for each office for the fiscal year in which the candidate files for office.
- (b) Nonpartisan judicial office - the offices of Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge of the Court of Appeals, circuit judge, and district judge.<sup>1</sup>
- (c) Filing Fee - for the purpose of these rules, the fee paid by a candidate for the offices of Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge of the Court of Appeals, and circuit judge to the Secretary of State at the time of filing his or her political practices pledge, or the fee paid by a candidate for the office of district judge to the county clerk at the time of filing his or her political practices pledge.

§ 101 Filing as a Candidate

A candidate for a nonpartisan judicial office may access the ballot by:

- (a) Paying a filing fee;
- (b) Filing a petition; or
- (c) Filing as a write-in candidate in the manner provided under §7-10-103.

§ 102 Payment of Filing Fees

- (a) Candidates for the offices of Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge of the Court of Appeals, and circuit judge shall pay the filing fee to the Secretary of State at the same time the candidate files his or her political practices pledge; and
- (b) Candidates for district judge shall pay the filing fee to the county clerk at the same time the candidate files his or her political practices pledge.<sup>2</sup> In a district composed of two or more counties, candidates may pay the filing fee to the county clerk of any one of the counties in the district.
