

Pre-Visit: Guess Who? The People of Arkansas - Crossword

Read the sentences below to figure out the crossword puzzle.

Bill Clinton

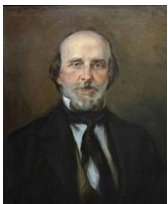

Erle Chambers

George Donaghey

Hattie Caraway

Isaac Murphy

Jeff Davis

Orval Faubus

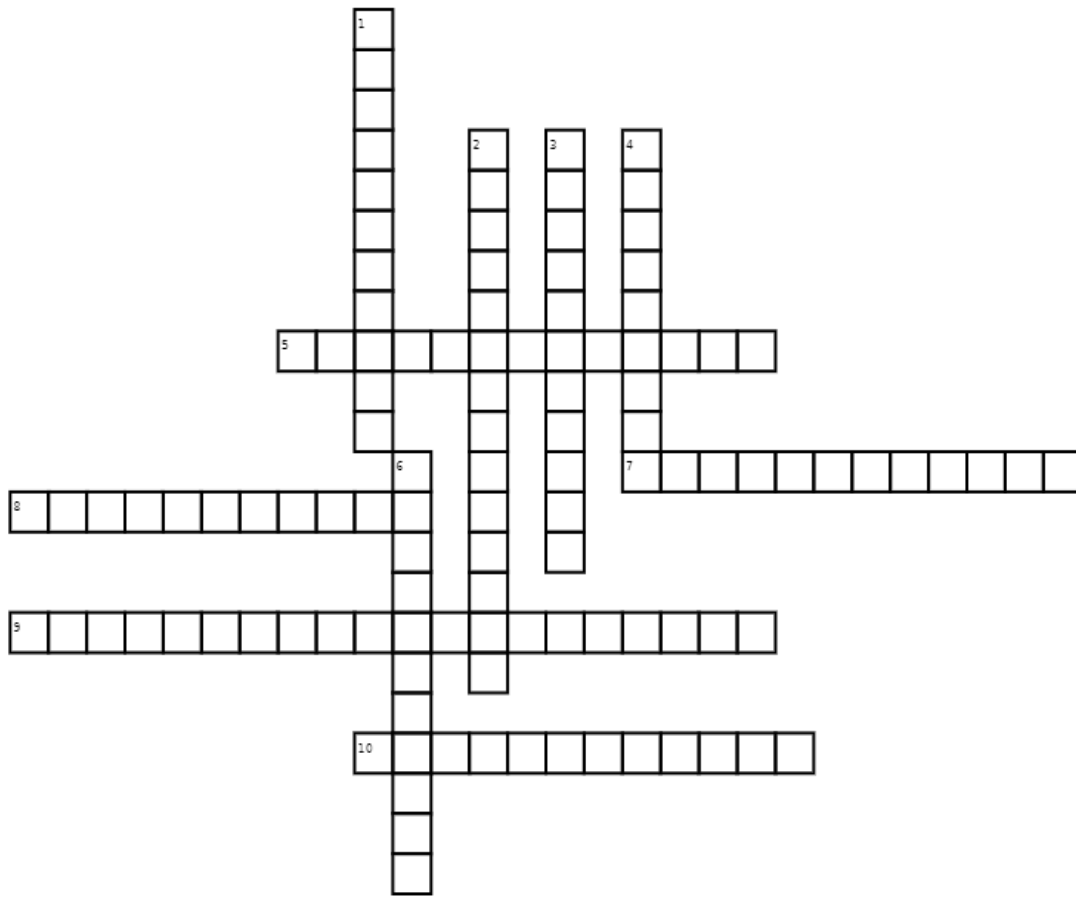

Sarah Sanders

William Grey

Winthrop Rockefeller

Down:

1. I was voted most effective Governor and then elected as the 42nd president.
2. I am responsible for completing the Arkansas State Capitol. Some call me the "Father of the Capitol."
3. In 1868, I fought for the rights of freedmen and I was a member of the Arkansas General Assembly.
4. I was elected as governor (3) times and later became a U.S. Senator.
6. In 1861, I voted against secession and was elected as the 8th Governor of Arkansas.

Across:

5. I was the first woman elected to the U.S. Senate.
7. I became Arkansas's first female governor.
8. I was not a fan of desegregating Central High School in Little Rock.
9. As governor, with a famous name and vast fortune, I brought economic, cultural, and political change to Arkansas.
10. I was the first woman elected to the Arkansas General Assembly.

Answers! Guess Who? The People of Arkansas - Crossword

Read the sentences below to figure out the crossword puzzle.

Bill Clinton

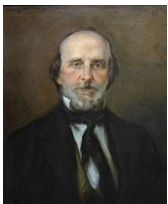

Erle Chambers

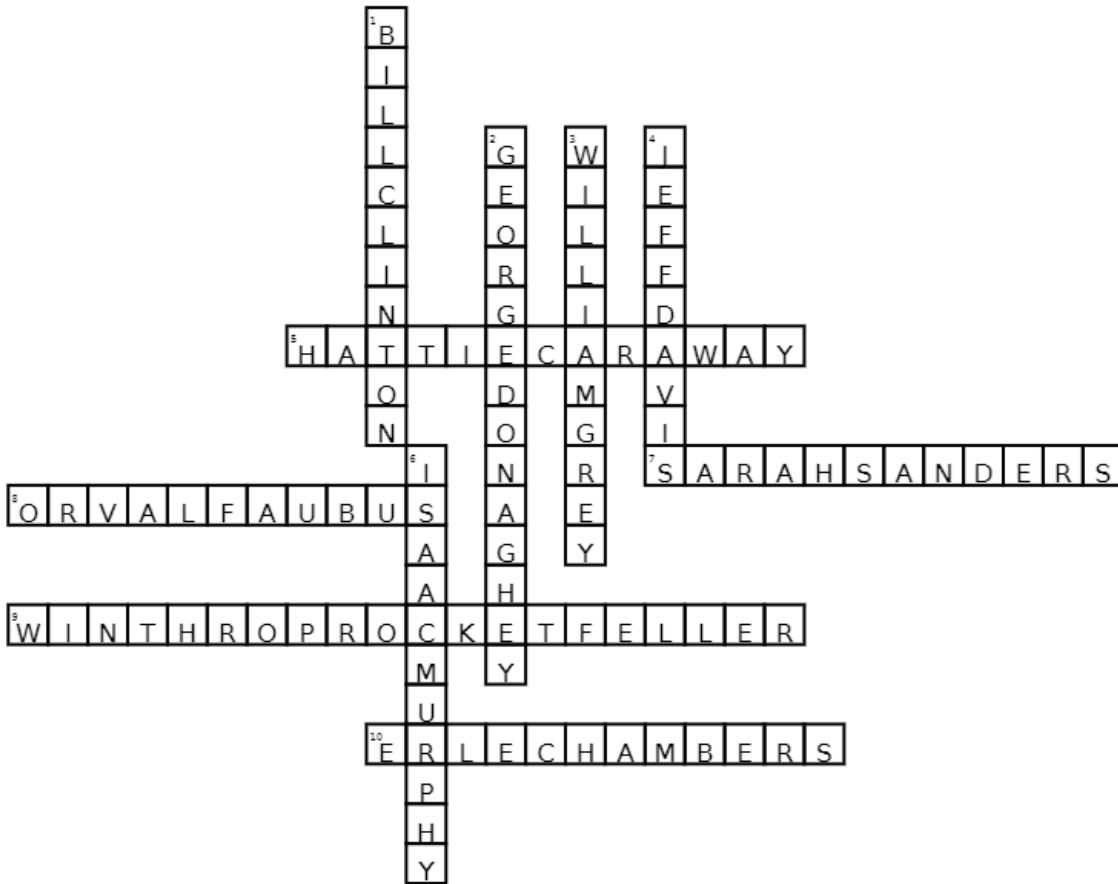

George Donaghey

Hattie Caraway

Isaac Murphy

Jeff Davis

Orval Faubus

Sarah Sanders

William Grey

Winthrop Rockefeller

Down:

1. I was voted most effective Governor and then elected as the 42nd president.
2. I am responsible for completing the Arkansas State Capitol. Some call me the "Father of the Capitol."
3. In 1868, I fought for the rights of freedmen and I was a member of the Arkansas General Assembly.
4. I was elected as governor (3) times and later became a U.S. Senator.
6. In 1861, I voted against secession and was elected as the 8th Governor of Arkansas.

Across:

5. I was the first woman elected to the U.S. Senate.
7. I became Arkansas's first female governor.
8. I was not a fan of desegregating Central High School in Little Rock.
9. As governor, with a famous name and vast fortune, I brought economic, cultural, and political change to Arkansas.
10. I was the first woman elected to the Arkansas General Assembly.