NOTARY COMPLAINT FORM

PURPOSES AND SCOPE

- The Arkansas Secretary of State (the “SoS”) may deny or revoke a Notary Public’s commission under Arkansas Code §§ 21-14-111 and 112 (reproduced on page 2). Any action taken by the SoS in response to the information provided on this form will be limited to these purposes.
- The SoS does not have authority to investigate criminal matters such as forgery or fraud, or to prosecute a notary public. Those who seek a criminal investigation or a civil remedy against a notary should contact the local prosecutor, law enforcement, and/or their own attorney to pursue such matters.
- The SoS is not authorized to determine the validity of a notarized document—only a court can determine the validity of a notarized document.
- The SoS cannot obtain restitution for losses that may have been caused by a notary’s actions or seek a claim against a notary’s bond. Such processes are handled through the judicial system. Please contact your own attorney for assistance.

INSTRUCTIONS

Notary Information: Include as much of the requested information as you know.

Complainant Information: Provide contact information for the person alleging misconduct.

Attn. Legal Division—Notary Complaint
500 Woodlane St., Suite 256
Little Rock, AR 72201

Upon review of the notary complaint and supporting documents, the SoS may deny or revoke a notary's commission, or send an appropriate letter of reprimand to the notary public. However, no further action may be taken without a court order.

Questions concerning the notary complaint process may be directed to the Legal division at (501) 682-3401.

A.C.A. § 21-14-111. Unlawful act--Penalty

(a) It is unlawful for any notary public to witness any signature on any instrument unless the notary public either:

- (1) Witnesses the signing of the instrument and personally knows the signer or is presented proof of the identity of the signer; or
- (2) Recognizes the signature of the signer by virtue of familiarity with the signature.

(b) Any notary public violating this section shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(c) For purposes of this section, "personally knows" means having an acquaintance, derived from association with the individual, which establishes the individual's identity with at least a reasonable certainty.

A.C.A. § 21-14-112. Denial or revocation of notary public commission

(a) The Secretary of State may deny the application of any person for appointment or reappointment or revoke the commission of any notary public during the notary public's term of appointment if the notary public:

- (1) Submits an application for commission and appointment that contains substantial and material misstatement or omission of fact;
- (2) Is convicted of official misconduct under the provisions of § 21-14-111;
- (3) Knowingly uses false or misleading advertising in which the notary public represents that the notary public has powers, duties, rights, or privileges that the notary public does not possess by law;
- (4) Is found by a court of this state to have engaged in the unauthorized practice of law;
- (5) Is found by a court to have improperly notarized documents according to the law;
- (6) Is found by a court to have charged fees higher than allowed under § 21-6-309; or
- (7) Fails to complete the requirements under § 21-14-101.

(b) The Secretary of State may investigate a possible violation of this section upon a signed complaint from any person.

(c) After a notary public receives notice from the Secretary of State that the notary public's commission has been revoked, unless the revocation has been enjoined the notary public shall immediately send or have delivered to the Secretary of State:

- (1) The notary public's journal of notarial acts;
- (2) All other papers and copies relating to the notary public's notarial acts; and
- (3) The notary public's official seal.

(d) A person whose notary public commission has been revoked pursuant to the provisions of this section may subsequently apply for commission and appointment as a notary public after ten (10) years have elapsed from the date of the revocation.
