Dear Candidate;

Per Arkansas Code Annotated §7-4-101, the State Board of Election Commissioners publishes a candidate handbook outlining, in a readable and understandable format, the legal obligations of a candidate and other suggestions to help candidates comply with election laws. The State Board of Election Commissioners, with the assistance of the Secretary of State's office and the Arkansas Ethics Commission, has developed this handbook for candidates running for public office that explains the necessary qualifications for holding public office, identifies filing procedures for candidates, and outlines campaign finance and disclosure reporting requirements under Arkansas law. This handbook is available upon request to all candidates running for public office.

Please note, this handbook is a guide and not a substitute for state law. You are encouraged to consult the Arkansas Ethics Commission for questions regarding campaign finance and disclosure reporting requirements, deadlines, and penalties; ballot question committees; county political party committees; exploratory committees; independent expenditure committees; legislative caucus committees; legislative question committees; political action committees (PACs); disclosure of financial information by public officials and candidates; political patronage; use of public labor or facilities for campaign purposes by a public servant; coercion of public employees for political purposes; campaign signs on government vehicles; and disclaimers on paid political ads. For questions regarding candidate qualifications; candidate filing procedures; candidate petition requirements; confirmation of specific dates; and blank forms and instructions, please contact the Secretary of State's office.

The State Board of Election Commissioners is pleased to offer you this 2016 edition of the Running for Public Office Handbook. We also encourage you to visit our website at www.arkansas.gov/sbec for additional information. Please feel free to contact our office if we can assist you in any way.

Sincerely,

Justin Clay

All political practices pledge forms shall be required to contain the pledge, “I hereby certify that I have never been convicted of a felony in Arkansas or in any other jurisdiction outside of Arkansas.” A candidate may certify that he or she has never been convicted of a felony if his or her record was expunged in accordance with Ark. ANY CANDIDATE WHO FAILS TO SIGN AND FILE THE POLITICAL PRACTICES PLEDGE SHALL NOT APPEAR ON THE BALLOT.
FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Electioneering at Polls

May a candidate or a candidate’s supporters campaign at a polling place while voting is taking place?

Campaigning is only allowed more than 100 feet from the primary exterior entrance to the polling site used by voters. Candidates and their supporters may not post signs, hand out campaign materials, solicit signatures on petitions, solicit charitable contributions, wear campaign apparel or accessories, or do any electioneering of any kind inside the 100’ boundary at a polling place on election day or during early voting. [A.C.A. §§7-1-103(a)(9); 7-1-104(a)(7)]

May a candidate’s campaign post signs or electioneer at any location on the property outside the 100’ boundary?

Private property owners (churches, businesses) who allow their facilities to be used as polling may restrict electioneering on their property, even outside the 100’ boundary. Check with the property owner before posting signs or engaging in other types of electioneering on the property. (See, AG Opinion No. 2011-009)

Campaign Signs & Ads

Where on public property may campaign signs be posted?

Check with city and county government about ordinances or regulations about posting campaign signs on street or road right of ways. Check with the highway department regarding regulations of state highway right of ways. Campaign signs cannot be placed on all public property so check with state, local or federal governmental officials about posting signs on other types of public property.

What are the requirements for campaign advertisements and other materials?

The state election code requires that all “articles, statements, or communications appearing in any newspaper printed or circulated in this state intended or calculated to influence the vote of any elector in any election and for the publication of which a consideration is paid or to be paid shall clearly contain the words ‘Paid Political Advertisement’, ‘Paid Political Ad’, or ‘Paid for by’ the candidate, committee, or person who paid for the message,” and also that all “articles, statements, or communications appearing in any radio, television, or any other electronic medium intended or calculated to influence the vote of any elector in any election and for the publication of which a consideration is paid or to be paid shall clearly contain the words: (a) ‘Paid political advertisement’ or ‘paid political ad’; or (b) ‘Paid for by’, ‘sponsored by’, or ‘furnished by’ the true sponsor of the advertisement.” [A.C.A. §7-1-103(7)]
Poll Watchers

May a candidate have a representative at polling places to observe voting and challenge ineligible voters?

A candidate may have a poll watcher at each polling place on election day and during early voting. Poll watchers may also attend absentee ballot processing and the counting and tabulation of ballots. Poll watchers are persons who observe the election process and can challenge the eligibility of voters at the polls on behalf of candidates, political parties and groups with an interest in measures on the ballot. The poll watcher authorization form is found in this book and must be filed with the county clerk. Poll watchers must present the poll watcher authorization form when entering the polling place. A candidate may designate the poll watcher to attend one or more polls during the election. However, a candidate may have only one poll watcher in a poll at any given time. In order to avoid delays, candidates should process poll watcher forms with the county clerk before election day. [A.C.A. §7-5-312]

Can a candidate be a poll watcher?

A candidate may not be a poll watcher at a polling place on election day. During early voting, a candidate can be present to observe the voting process but not to challenge voters. When the polls close a candidate may serve as a poll watcher for the purpose of observing the processing of absentee ballots and the counting and tabulation of all ballots. A candidate may challenge the absentee ballots of ineligible voters during processing. A candidate may also observe the counting and tabulation of ballots. Candidates who observe early voting or serve as a poll watcher at absentee ballot voter processing must present ID to an election official. [A.C.A. §§7-5-312(a)(1); 7-5-413(d); 7-5-417; State Board of Election Commissioners Rules on Poll Watchers, Vote Challenges and Provisional Voting, §903]

Presence at Polls

How should a candidate who has non-election business at the courthouse (or a polling place that is also a business or government facility) while voting is occurring conduct himself/herself?

Any person, including candidates, with non-election business in a polling place must not linger in the voting room any longer than necessary to conduct her/his business and should not do anything that might be construed as electioneering. Candidates should not engage in extended conversations with voters standing in line because it could be construed as electioneering. It is a crime to electioneer in any manner with persons standing in line to vote inside or outside the courthouse. [A.C.A. §§1-103(a)(9)(B); 7-1-104(a)(7); 7-5-310]

Can a candidate or a representative of a candidate go into a polling place to pick up voter data?

Generally, no, unless the “representative” is a credentialed poll watcher. The county election commission has statutory discretion to allow other persons in the polling place. Such arrangements should be worked out before the election. Anyone allowed in the poll may not do anything to disrupt the conduct of the election. [A.C.A. §7-5-310]
Assisting Voters

May a candidate assist voters in marking and casting their ballots?

A voter who is unable to mark or cast a ballot without help may be assisted by either two poll workers or any one person of the voter’s choice. Any person, including a candidate, may assist up to six voters in marking and casting their ballots. The voter (not the assistant) must first notify the poll worker that he/she needs assistance. The assistant must mark the ballot according to the voter’s wishes and without comment or interpretation. It is a crime to assist more than six voters in any election. [A.C.A. §§7-5-310(a); 7-1-103(a)(20)(C)]

Candidate’s Name on Ballot

How is the order that the names of candidates appear on the ballot determined?

The county board of election commissioners determines ballot positions for all offices by lot after filing is complete. The date of the ballot draw will be published in a local newspaper. Candidates are encouraged to attend this public meeting and should contact the county election commission for information about the ballot draw. [Generally, see A.C.A. §7-7-305(b)]

What if there is a mistake in the way my name is printed on the ballot?

Candidates may attend the public testing of voting machines, and mistakes caught at that time can usually be fixed. By attending the public testing, candidates can also assure the accuracy of the machines. The dates and times of the public testing are published in a local newspaper. Contact the election commission for more information. If the mistake is on a printed ballot, submit an affidavit to the election commission pointing out the mistake. The election commission must meet to either resolve the mistake or state why the mistake cannot be fixed. [A.C.A. §7-5-209]

Election Official Conflicts

My opponent’s husband has been an election official in the past. Can a husband serve as an election official in an election where the wife is on the ballot?

An election official whose spouse, child, parent, or grandparent is a candidate may be disqualified if challenged. The list of election officials must be posted at the courthouse door no later than 15 days before the election, and challenges must be made no later than 10 days after such posting. Contact the election commission for the date of posting election officials. [A.C.A. §7-4-109(d)]
Recounts

How does a candidate ask for a recount?

The county board of election commissioners must conduct a recount for any candidate who is dissatisfied with the results of an election and who asks for a recount. [A.C.A. §7-5-319]

Generally, a candidate has two days to ask for a recount after the preliminary and unofficial results of the election are declared by the county election commission. This declaration usually is made on election night, so the deadline is usually the next Thursday after the election.

However, if the number of outstanding military and overseas civilian ballots is enough to potentially change the outcome of the election, a candidate may ask for a recount any time before the county election commission certifies the result of the election. Note, that the military and overseas civilian absentee ballots that may be counted if received after election day must arrive at the county clerk’s office by the tenth day after the election. A candidate considering asking for a recount under these circumstances should be in frequent contact with the election commission regarding its plans for certification.

The candidate bears the cost of the recount if the result of the election is not changed. If the candidate wins as a result of the recount, the costs are refunded to the candidate. The costs must be paid up front. The statutory cost of a recount is set at $0.25 per vote cast in precincts where a recount is requested with a maximum cost of $2,500 per county. [A.C.A. §7-5-319]

Candidate Eligibility

What is the process for challenging a candidate based on eligibility?

During the party filing period, a party candidate is required to file an affidavit of eligibility with the party stating that he or she is eligible to serve in the office sought. [A.C.A. §§7-1-101(2); 7-7-301]

A.C.A. §7-5-805 addresses contests to the eligibility and qualifications of members of the State Senate and State House of Representatives, which are ultimately decided by the legislative body itself. Otherwise, any challenge of a candidate’s eligibility to run for office would be decided in an election contest by a court of law.

CAMPAIGN FINANCE & DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

The campaign finance and public disclosure laws of Arkansas require candidates for public office to file disclosure documents relating to their campaigns, as well as their personal financial interests. Public office includes any and all state, district, county, municipal and township offices, as well as school boards.

Candidates for State, District, County, Municipal, Township, and School Board offices must file certain Campaign Contribution and Expenditure Reports when contributions received or expenditures made in any election exceed five hundred dollars ($500). A candidate is required to file a final report for each election in which the candidate’s name has appeared on the ballot regardless of whether he or she has received contributions or made expenditures in excess of five hundred dollars ($500).

Candidates for State, District, County, Municipal, Township, and School Board must file a Statement of Financial Interest for the previous calendar year on the first Monday following the close of the period to file as a candidate for the elective office. Incumbent officeholders who filed a statement of financial interest for the previous calendar year by January 31 of the year in which an election is held are not required to file an additional statement of financial interest upon becoming a candidate for reelection or election to another office during the year.

• Considered timely filed if hand-delivered or mailed properly addressed, postage prepaid, and postmarked on or before the date that the report is due.

  NOTE: No monthly report shall be due for any month in which certain days of that month are included in a preelection report or a final report. Blank reporting forms for reporting debt retirement and carryover funds are available from the Secretary of State and sample forms can be found on the Arkansas Ethics Commission website at www.arkansasethics.com.

To determine whether there is a net debt outstanding from a particular election, the candidate must prove “net debts outstanding” as of the date of the election.

For assistance in determining legitimate campaign debts and in calculating the net debts outstanding, see the Rules on Campaign Finance & Disclosure §229 at www.arkansasethics.com.

Retiring Campaign Debt [Rules on Campaign Finance & Disclosure §§229, 230]

- Any person who was a candidate and has campaign debt from an election that has ended may solicit funds and hold fund raisers to retire the campaign debt.
- The prohibition against a candidate soliciting or accepting campaign contributions more than two (2) years before an election at which the candidate seeks nomination or election does not apply to the solicitation or acceptance of a contribution for the sole purpose of raising funds to retire a previous campaign debt.

NOTE: A nonpartisan judicial candidate’s committee is permitted to raise funds to retire debt no later than forty-five (45) days after the last contested election in which the candidate participates during the election year. [Cannon 4.4(B)(2) of the Code of Judicial Conduct]

- Contributions received for purposes of debt retirement shall be treated as campaign contributions to the candidate’s previous election, and all campaign contribution limits shall continue to apply.
- Contributors shall be given notice that the campaign contributions are for the purpose of retiring a campaign debt.
- Any invitation to or notice of a fund raiser to retire a campaign debt of a previous campaign shall state that the funds will be used to retire a campaign debt.
- Campaign contribution and expenditure reports concerning campaign debt are filed on a quarterly basis and are due not later than fifteen (15) days after the end of the calendar quarter. A quarterly report is only due if a person who was a candidate has received cumulative contributions or made cumulative expenditures in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) since the last report concerning the debt. No report is required for any calendar quarter in which the cumulative contribution or expenditure limit has not been exceeded since the person’s last report.

Surplus campaign funds do not include campaign signs, campaign literature, or other printed materials that were (i) purchased by the campaign, (ii) reported on the appropriate contribution and expenditure report for the campaign, and (iii) retained for use in a future campaign by the same candidate. A.C.A. §7-6-201

After a campaign has ended, the candidate is responsible for assigning a fair market value to all assets of the campaign, and the campaign assets must be disposed of by sale of property for money or by transfer of property in accordance with A.C.A. §7-6-203(h).

For assistance in determining the amount of surplus campaign funds, see the Rules on Campaign Finance & Disclosure §226 at www.arkansasethics.com.

INDEPENDENT EXPENDITURE COMMITTEES [A.C.A. §§7-6-201, 7-6-207, 7-6-213, 7-6-220, 7-6-227; Rules on Independent Expenditures §§700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706]

An “independent expenditure committee” is any person that receives contributions from one (1) or more persons in order to make an independent expenditure and is registered pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. §7-6-227 before making expenditures.

An “independent expenditure” is any expenditure which is not a contribution and expressly advocates the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate for office; is made without arrangement, cooperation, or consultation between any candidate or any authorized committee or agent of the candidate and the person making the expenditure or any authorized agent of that person; and is not made in concert with or at the request or suggestion of any candidate or any authorized committee or agent of the candidate.

Blank registration and reporting forms are available from the Secretary of State and on the Arkansas Ethics Commission website at www.arkansasethics.com.

If an out-of-state independent expenditure committee makes an independent expenditure or expenditures within the state that in the aggregate exceed five hundred dollars ($500) during a calendar year, the committee must comply with all registration and reporting requirements under Arkansas law and is subject to the jurisdiction of the State of Arkansas for all purposes of compliance with the provisions of subchapter 2 of chapter 6, Title 7 of the Arkansas Code.

It is permissible for an independent expenditure committee to pay reasonable administrative expenses out of the contributions it has received.

While it is permissible for an organized political party to make a contribution to an independent expenditure committee, an organized political party is NOT able to make an independent expenditure due to the inherently close relationship between the party and its nominees. A contribution shall not be accepted from an independent expenditure committee nor can an expenditure be made by an independent expenditure committee that has not registered and does not have a resident agent.
